2 | Jonathan Adler's Palm Springs Vases are hand-thrown by skilled artisans in the company's Peruvian workshop. Available in six silhouettes, the black stoneware, in organic geometric patterns, has a crafty yet couture vibe. $250 to $625. Jonathan Adler in Short Hills or jonathanadler.com.

3 | A mosaic of natural bone that is hand-cut and hand-laid into black resin over a wood frame, the Labyrinth Drawer Chest can animate and anchor any creative space. $3,050. Bernhardt.com.

4 | The Kate chair from Jessica Charles transforms cherry blossoms into a sophisticated black and white print. $1,890. Brielle Furniture in Sea Girt.

5 | Blair, a Dorothy Draper-inspired cabinet designed by Tobi Fairley for Woodbridge Furniture, combines eloquence with eye-popping optical allure. Finished in high-gloss black and white paint and nickel hardware, the versatile piece can be used as a bar cabinet or storage chest. $2,195. Safavieh Home Furnishings in Livingston and Paramus; Schwartz Design Showroom in Metuchen (to the trade); Stickley, Audi & Co. in Paramus.

6 | The Little Miss Tuffet in Hair-on-Hide from Mitchell Gold + Bob Williams is great as a footrest, extra seating or anywhere you want to add a chic focal point. $1,666. Mitchell Gold + Bob Williams in Paramus or mgbwhome.com.

7 | Shown in Pinto Jet — a printed hair-on-hide resembling polka dots — the Brandi chair from Hancock & Moore updates the classic bergère style with a polished black wood finish and crisp white leather seat. $4,080. Zakson's Fine Furniture & Interior Design in Brick.

8 | Caracole's Simply Put Sofa has a stunning silhouette detailed with nickel-plated metal accents and a Tuxedo Black finish. For a retail locator and pricing, caracole.com.

9 | Inspired by patterns from the Portuguese cobblestone pavement, the new Calcada Portuguesa tableware collection — created by Manoela Medeiros for Vista Alegre — is a special tribute to Lisbon. Sugar box, $68. Vistaalegre.com.

10 | Taking its cue from stylized Art Deco geometrics and the luxurious sophistication of high-hospitality style, the Ravensmoore collection from Eastern Accents exudes effortless poise. $1,500 to $2,580. Easternaccents.com.

11 | Small in size but commanding in presence, Century's Mia chair works as a modern pull-up chair with its fretwork back and fully upholstered seat. $2,085. Centuryfurniture.com.

12 | Omnia from Fürstenberg streamlines the dinner service to just four essential pieces: dinner plate, breakfast plate, double-walled bowl and double-walled cup. When stacked on top of each other, they grow into a single sculptural object. White set, $698; anthracite set, $972. Fürstenberg-porzellan.com.

13 | Natural bone and black resin stripes distinguish the simple and classic Concord B&W box from Worlds Away. $257.50. Worlds-away.com.
